

President's Message

Position yourself today to gain that business edge with Beacon for Change - let our trusted committed professional staff help you...

Thank you for visiting our web site. We hope you find the information relevant and useful.

I believe the need for effective leadership and management has not been reduced by the advancement of technology. In fact, that need is growing as technologies continue to advance exponentially.

Today's environments are complex and dynamic. Stakeholder relations, project performance, process improvement, staff development, and risk management are just some of the areas requiring continual attention. You may need to focus your efforts on your organization's core competencies while engaging external consultants and coaches to augment and develop your internal capabilities. I am confident we will earn your trust through our tailored services delivered with experience, adaptability and results.

On behalf of our team, I invite you to explore the difference we can make for you and your organization.

Sincerely,

Dune

Dune Nguyen, MBA, CMC, PMP, ISP
